CONFIDENTIALITY

The information in this document and in any attached documentation is the property of Verizon Wireless, contains confidential and proprietary information of Verizon Wireless and its affiliates, and is submitted to General Services Administration in confidence. This information may be used by General Services Administration and its representatives, which include third-party advisors, agents and consultants, solely for the purpose of evaluating Verizon Wireless' products and services proposed herein. General Services Administration agrees to treat this information and any attached documentation, including, without limitation, any pricing, terms and conditions, and any information relating to Verizon Wireless' technology, business affairs, or marketing or sales plans, as strictly confidential. General Services Administration agrees not to copy this information or attached documentation, in whole or in part, or disclose such information to others, except to persons who have a need to know for the evaluation purpose stated above. General Services Administration agrees to return this information and any attached documentation to Verizon Wireless upon written request. General Services Administration agrees that in the event of a breach or threatened breach of confidentiality, in addition to other remedies, Verizon Wireless shall be entitled to specific performance and injunctive or other equitable relief. General Services Administration's review, use, or disclosure of this information and attached documentation shall constitute acceptance of the terms above.
